

Terri L. Hill, supporting Failsafe-era for over 5 years as secretary. Mother of 3 adult daughters and 4 granddaughters. Terri is currently employed as a Government contractor. In her spare time, she enjoys reading books, walking and when she can, again, traveling. As a God-fearing woman, she prays that her testimony of faith, through life's trials will help the next person to know that they can get through anything with God by their side.