Scholarship Program

The Failsafe-ERA (hereinafter referred to as Failsafe) Scholarship Program is designed to address the financial needs of individuals impacted by incarceration. It is a benefit that will impact our communities as individuals are provided growth opportunities. We are offering two $1,000 scholarships annually as follows:

- Right Road Scholarship for a returning citizen (formerly incarcerated) for higher education opportunity to become more marketable citizens of our community, which will lend itself to better employment opportunities.
- Eugene Melvin Melchior Scholarship for a high school graduate, impacted by incarceration, ages 17-21, pursuing a higher education opportunity. This scholarship supports preventing generations of incarceration.

Eligibility

The scholarship is only open to returning citizens (formerly incarcerated) and family members impacted by incarceration.

Selection Criteria

Returning citizens must demonstrate remorse for their action and a willingness to change. Family members must demonstrate hope in their future and strength to overcome setbacks. Applicants must complete our application and participate in an in-person or phone interview with the Failsafe Scholarship Education Committee to finalize the application process. They will be contacted directly to schedule the interview after the deadline date.

Application Process

Applicants must write an essay about how they intend to use their field of study for the good of the community. Give us some insight into your personal background and why you chose your field in particular, and any other information you feel is relevant. Your essay will be judged based on originality and creativity. Weight will be given to financial need, situational hardship, community service, and leadership potential.
